

LUXEMBOURG

Internationality, excellence and diversity:
A modern university education with a personal atmosphere

Why choose Luxembourg?

The University of Luxembourg is the only public university in the country, attracting nearly 6800 students from 130 different countries every year. It was ranked 20th in the 2021 list of universities under 50 years of age by the Times Higher Education (THE).

International courses

The University of Luxembourg offers more than 60 bachelor and master degrees, most of which are bilingual (French-English or French-German).

But there are also more than 23 programmes taught entirely in English!

University tuition fee

200€ - 400€ per semester

Exceptions apply for certain specialized courses

Scholarships and financial aid

International students can take advantage of certain scholarship options managed directly by the University, including for deserving students and students in precarious situations. For more information on grants, private scholarships and loans, visit:
